

Different Kinds of Homes

1. _____people live in an igloo. _____live in a cabin.
How many people are living there? Are there more igloo or cabin people? How many more?
2. My apartment building has _____stories. If _____people live on each floor, how many people live in my apartment building?
3. It takes _____stilts to hold up one beach house.
How many stilts would it take to hold up _____beach houses?
4. A ski lodge has _____floors. Each floor has one less room than the floor below. If the bottom floor has _____rooms, how many are on the top floor? How many rooms altogether?

The Little Red Hen

1. One bundle of wheat could be ground into _____ cups of flour. How many cups could she get out of _____ bundles of wheat?
2. Little Red can bake _____ loaves each day. How many would that make in a week?
3. Little Red baked _____ white, _____ wheat, and _____ cinnamon loaves. How many loaves is that? Put them in order from most to least? How many more does most have than least?
4. Little Red changes her mind and decides to share her bread with duck, dog and cat. If she cuts a loaf into _____ pieces, how many will each get?